Happy New Year!

growing

We are suspending our regular ministry programming to truly focus on prayer here at The Bridge for the first week of 2012. LifeGroups are encouraged to attend one of the prayer gatherings this week and seek the Lord together.

This week we are asking each person who calls The Bridge home to set aside some extra time focusing on God in prayer. Please take advantage of the prayer stations we have set up on campus from 9 - 7 Monday through Thursday this week.

We also invite you to come to one of the corporate prayer gatherings from 7 - 8 p.m. tonight, and again on Wednesday and Thursday evening.

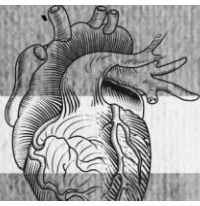

LifeGroup sermon discussion questions will resume next week.
